

Interview Summary Comments

Attorney, James Kayden was asked whether or not the modules disclosed in the application were software. Same responded that he would have to contact his client and would get back with a response by Monday, December 21, 2009. Examiner intimated that if the modules were software, the claim language would need to be amended to include hardware.

LA/la
December 18, 2009